Employment Is Promised Thousands

Ten Months Recovery Drive To Open Under The National Housing Act

With the election out of the way, Southern California business is set to make an intensive recovery drive under the stimulating influence of the National Housing Act. Major features of the Nation-wide program are now under way or ready for launching in virtually every Southern California community and the work of modernization and new building to be created through the National agency is expected during the ten months of the campaign to put thousands of unemployed building trade workers back on private payrolls and to start construction activity totaling millions of dollars.

One of the outstanding factors of the modernization program, according to Fred Schwartz, Southern California Edison Company manager in this territory, is that the recently revised governmental regulations make possible the wide use of electrical appliances in home and farm modernization plans.

"Late rulings of the Federal Housing Administration set aside the original restrictions that electric ranges, refrigerators and water heaters have to be 'built in' and now the attaching of these service units in conduit is regarded as sufficient," Mr. Schwartz said.

"This means that the extremely low financing costs under the housing act are available to those who wish to bring their kitchens up to date by the installation of electrical equipment. The Edison Company organization, through its local offices, has arranged to aid anyone desiring this type of financing in preparation of applications and in full planning for the installation of electrical equipment. Electrical modernization programs, while logically starting with the kitchen by the use of electric range, water heater and refrigerator, are not, of course, limited to the kitchen but may be applied to other parts of the home as well. Many home modernization programs may well include re-wiring to provide extra convenience outlets in all rooms and new and improved lighting for both the house and yard.

LATEST EXHIBIT AT LITTLE GALLERY BRINGS MANY WELL KNOWN ARTISTS AND CRITICS

By Vernon Jay Morse

THE reception marking the opening of the current art exhibit at the Little Gallery last Thursday night gave many Sierra Madreans a thrill for there were paraded about the walls one of the finest groups of painting ever shown here, and in addition many of the artists whose work is exhibited came to our city for the first time. As we pointed out last week the fame of our Little Gallery has spread and we are not surprised but gratified when many out-of-towners attend our opening nights.

Paul Lauritz, four times prize winner at the State Fair, brought his family, and was spontaneous in his praise of the work and interest which we, here, are lending to the furtherance of art acceptance. His fine marine, "Rolling Surf," won first prize at Sacramento, and is one of the outstanding pictures in the show.

Mrs. Antonia Melville of Los Angeles, painter of the symbolic picture, "Supremacy of Life," told us she had never seen a more sympathetically hung exhibit and she added that she has seen art shows in the principal cities of the world.

At every turn our town was complimented by these visitors. Artists are appreciative of deserved attention so we must learn that assistance from our exhibitors will be freely given in exchange for the privilege of hanging their works where they may be seen by interested art-lovers.

Among the distinguished artist-visiters were two lately from San Francisco who have adopted Southern California as home—Clyde Scott, painter of the beautiful landscape "Autumn," and his friend, Will White. Also a delightful couple, Ross and Daisy Dickinson, both of whom are represented in the exhibit. Ross is becoming a muralist of note. His works in the P.W.A.P. are a real addition to that great

Morton, Fox Win As Township Judges

William E. Fox, young attorney, decisively defeated Judge Elliott Gibbs for Office No. 2 of Pasadena Township justice court and J. Russell Morton was re-elected in a close fight with Roland Maxwell for Office No. 1 at Tuesday's election.

The majority of Fox over Gibbs is more than 3500 in the township, of which Sierra Madre is a part, while Morton is leading Maxwell by 262 votes. Approximately 400 absentees' votes that will not be counted until next week are not expected to change the result of this nip-and-tuck contest.

Casting 872 votes for him and 460 for Maxwell, Sierra Madre gave Judge Morton a majority of 412. It gave Fox 839 and Gibbs 612, a majority of 227.

Supervisor-Elect Wins In This City

One of the surprises of the election here was the vote polled by Supervisor-elect Herbert C. Legg, who had a majority of 110 votes over Hugh A. Thatcher, of Pomona, the incumbent. At the primary election, in which Sierra Madre had a favorite son candidate in the person of City Business Manager Al S. Myers, Thatcher received 283, Legg 151 and Myers 521 votes. There were ten other candidates at the primary. On Tuesday Legg, who defeated Thatcher by a large majority, polled 857 votes here as against 747 for Thatcher.

The Supervisor-elect, a rancher and businessman of Downey, is a former resident of Lamanda Park. He has a thorough understanding of engineering problems, is conversant with the people and needs of his district and should prove a capable official. In a letter to THE NEWS, received yesterday, he said:

"The vote is evidence that the people of the First District are desirous that their affairs shall be administered fairly, without waste and for the benefit of all the people.

"I shall do my utmost in the conduct of the office to abide by their definite instructions in this respect.

"My sincere thanks go to the loyal army of volunteer men and women who have devoted their services to me during my entire campaign and I wish to take this opportunity, through the courtesy of this newspaper, to express my deep appreciation of their efforts."

achievement in art production. His gifted wife has lent us a fine portrait head, "Carrillo," an excellent character study. Fine work. Ross and Daisy, we hope to have a joint exhibit of your work in the spring.

A striking ship yard interlude is the painting, "Stolen Smoke," painted by Edson Roraback, of Azusa, who has been interested in our art exhibits for a long time. He was excited about the way our Little Gallery shows off such a fine group of large paintings.

Miss Thomasella H. Graham arranged our excellent decorative scheme and all-in-all we were proud of the way the evening turned out. All thanks to our open-eyed city dads for sponsoring these affairs and, oh yes, one thing more: it is very important that every one, able to do so, visit and enjoy these shows."

Legion Post Plans A Brief Ceremony For Armistice Day

At the Monday evening meeting of the Sierra Madre Legion post it was decided to alter last week's plans, and stage a short local ceremony in observance of Armistice Day Sunday.

Legionnaires will mobilize in front of the City Hall at 11 o'clock Sunday morning, the salute to the flag will be given and a prayer offered by Rev. Arthur O. Pritchard in honor of the war dead. Taps will be sounded by buglers representing the Spanish-American, World War and Boy Scouts. There will be no parade to the cemetery or other ceremony.

John Stevens McGroarty, Congressman-elect of this district, will be the guest speaker at the Monrovia Legion post's Armistice Day celebration, and a fine supporting program has been arranged. All Sierra Madreans are cordially invited to attend, the services being open to the public.

Traditions Upset Here A Third Time

City Rejects Local Option And Votes For Sale Of Hard Liquor

The older and the more conservative citizens of Sierra Madre were shocked again by the city's vote on the liquor issue at Tuesday's election. For the third consecutive time in two years the city which, until a little more than a year ago, did not sanction the sale of any alcoholic beverages of whatever content—not even near beer—voted decidedly "wet."

The early residents who fought the operation of Prof. John Hart's famous winery and who jammed the Council chambers in days gone by to voice their indignation against the granting of licenses to permit the serving of beer or wine in hotel dining rooms, turned pale when Sierra Madre voted two years ago 970 to 773 for repeal of the Wright or State prohibition law.

They were shocked in 1933 when the city voted 793 to 385 in favor of repeal of the National prohibition amendment. On the heels of the vote in 1932 vote beer was sold here for the first time in the city's history. After that came wine and after that booze—the concentrate—in bulk, to be carried away for consumption.

But now Sierra Madre has voted in favor of the licensed sale of hard liquor by the drink—or "shot"—in properly licensed hotels and restaurants, of course, but nevertheless . . .

The city's approval of Proposition No. 2, allowing liquor to be sold by the drink, was by the narrow margin of 45 votes—828 to 781. Opponents of the proposition may find solace in assurance given yesterday by the State Board of Equalization that thousands of the 7,900 beer stands in Los Angeles county will be driven out of business, that barbecues and hot dog stands, or beer parlors, will not be permitted to sell liquor and that, in fact, they will be denied to dispense even wine. And, on top of that, that the license fees will be increased from $50 to $250, with licenses only to persons of known good character (never having been convicted on liquor or felony charges) and only to bona fide restaurants and hotels actually selling meals instead of merely pop corn, peanuts, pretzels and rubber sandwiches.

But Sierra Madre went farther and voted down—by a majority of 465 votes—the local option proposition (No. 13) that would have given the people of the city or any of its election precincts the right to say whether or not liquor of any strength should be sold within their neighborhood.

Observations By Lee Shippey

THE election showed California must get rid of the people who create radicalism. These are, perversely, the people who have N. R. A. eagles in their windows but do not live up to it, thereby making their employees secretly radical; those who get out of paying income taxes, and so on.

Nights In Paris To Be Told Women At Next Club Meeting

Mrs. Catherine W. Watkins, artist and traveler, will talk of "Studio Nights in Paris," next Wednesday at the Sierra Madre Woman's Club meeting. Mrs. Watkins has just returned from a three and a half year tour of the world.

Armistice Day By MARY WARD

The Nation sets aside this day For these our heroes who've returned From war's mad havoc, and surcease Of sorrow that in fond hearts burned When soldiers, like the knights of old, Midst world-wide clouds of gloom Bravely fought and bled—and died On Flanders fields a-bloom— Or who, in trenches stood the test In filthy slime and mud— All the myriad poppies stained And wet with precious blood. While we rejoice for peace ahead, Let's not forget our legion dead.

Biedler Dies As Result Of Auto Mishap

Well Known Citizen Run Down While On His Way To Cast His Ballot

An inquest will be conducted at Grant's Funeral Parlor on 9:30 this morning to ascertain the circumstances leading to the death of Harold Biedler, who was run down by a truck while crossing Central avenue at the intersection of Baldwin avenue Tuesday evening.

At the time of the accident Mr. Biedler was on his way to the polls to vote. He was not thought to be in a critical condition when given first aid treatment by Dr. M. H. A. Peterson, although he was suffering from a broken leg and head injuries.

Rushed to the Monte Sano Osteopathic Hospital, in Los Angeles by Dr. C. L. T. Herbert, the family practitioner and long time friend, Mr. Biedler was later reported to be resting easily. Then Wednesday night, he died unexpectedly.

The truck, driven by Fred Robbins, who lives at 280 San Gabriel Court, was going east on Central avenue at a speed estimated at 25 miles per hour by Officer James Heasley, as Mr. Biedler walked into its path.

Mr. Biedler resided at 252 Mariposa avenue, having come to Sierra Madre eleven years ago. Although he was in retirement here, he was much interested in the community's welfare and activities and acted as a Red Cross representative in charge of the height of the transient influx here in 1932. He also assisted City Hall officers in checking PWA work registrations, and work applications.

Mr. Biedler's quiet, kindly disposition gained him many staunch friends here who were shocked at the news of his unexpected passing. He was born 58 years ago at Westchester, Pa., but had spent the greater part of his life in North Dakota and Minnesota, coming to California in 1923 from Dickinson, N.D., where he had extensive business interests. He was a member of the Masonic Order in Dickinson, and 25 years was general manager of the Walton-Davies Lumber and Grain company and a member of the Board of Directors of the Merchant's National Bank of that city.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Mabel Biedler; three sisters, Miss Allison Biedler, of Minneapolis, Minn.; Mrs. Edith Rutledge, of Tacoma, Wash., and Mrs. Verna Orr, of Springfield, Missouri; and two brothers, Herman Biedler, of Tacoma, Wash., and Francis Biedler, of San Francisco.

Funeral services will be held Saturday morning at 11 o'clock from Grant Parlor, with Rev. Mr. Holgate, of Pasadena, officiating.

Herbert Hoovers Injured When Cars Crash On The Ridge

Both Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hoover, Jr., were injured last week while driving near Bakersfield, en route from Palo Alto where they had gone to see the Stanford-USC football game. The couple's automobile collided with another car, Mr. Hoover wrenching his back, and his wife being bruised and badly shaken. They were given emergency treatment, and were brought to their Sierra Madre home. A woman friend who accompanied them was uninjured.

Watchdog And Jewelry Among Burglars Loot

The old movie gags about the burglar walking off with the over friendly watchdog was re-enacted here Friday when thieves entered the home of Mrs. Leona Hambaugh, 625 East Orange Grove avenue, walked off with bracelets, rings, some food supplies and Bowser Ferocious, the canine guardian.

Tony Gutierrez, caretaker, who reported the case to Chief of Police Gordon McMillan, discovered the burglary when he noticed the dog was missing.

Red Cross To Open Drive Next Sunday

Twenty City Firemen Join Before Membership Campaign Begins

Final plans have been made for the Red Cross Roll Call starting Sunday, Armistice Day. Capt. E. G. Everett, chairman, said last night that the captains and teams under him who would be soliciting were all set for a record drive.

Miss Louise Judson, Secretary, announced that she had received the first contribution in the form of a check from the Volunteer Firemen which represented a 100 percent membership for that organization.

"We can always depend on our Firemen," she said, "for they not only join 100 percent but they give us such splendid cooperation through the whole year. It is very encouraging to receive this check before the campaign really opens and we trust other organizations will follow suit without waiting to be solicited."

Harry H. Hinde, special field representative of the National Red Cross, was in the city Thursday and he was much pleased with the local plans for the Roll Call. He made the following statement in regard to the present campaign:

"At no time within the history of this nation has there appeared such great need for support of the Red Cross. Those who desire the 'land of their fathers' to continue an abode for liberty-loving people, and that assistance may be given from friendly hands to those who are in need of help, should put forth an immediate, united energy and press forward to make the Roll Call an overwhelming success."

Assemblyman Wins Out By Two To One

Sierra Madre contributed substantially to the smashing two to one victory of Assemblyman Frank G. Martin over Mrs. M. F. Wotherspoon, Epic candidate who sought his place at Sacramento. Martin's majority was 5616 votes, he polling 11,482 and his opponent 5,866 ballots.

He polled 978 votes here as against 596 for his opponent, whereas at the August primary election Martin received 487 and Mrs. Wotherspoon 289 votes. Altadena gave Martin a majority of 3,501 votes.

The Assemblyman-elect issued a statement yesterday pledging himself again to use his vote and influence to the utmost for a reduction in governmental expenditures, lower taxes and a solution of the unemployment situation. Mr. Martin said:

"I seem to have been re-elected by a substantial majority. I find a poverty of words at my command to convey, as I should like, to all my good friends of this district, Republicans and Democrats, who forgot every line of political cleavage and became upstanding Americans in the campaign, and who supported me and other anti-Sinclair candidates. I feel no gloating as though it were a personal victory for me. I do take it as a vote of confidence in me. And I do take it, in a larger sense, as a mandate to me from the people of this district, to use all my energies in the 1935 Legislature to help toward the economic rehabilitation of California."

Merriam Gets Big Majority Here But Many Surprises Shown In City's Returns

APPROVAL IS GIVEN LIQUOR, WAR VETERANS AND UNEMPLOYMENT BOND ISSUES, ELECTED JUDGES AND SUPERVISOR, BUT DENIED $24,000,000 FLOOD CONTROL PROPOSAL

Pretty well following the general trend of public sentiment in the county and State, Sierra Madre at Tuesday's election gave Governor Merriam a majority of 539 votes over Upton Sinclair, supported the $30,000,000 war veterans bond issue, the $24,000,000 State unemployment relief bond issue, negated the county flood prevention bond issue pretty decisively, and, surprisingly, voted against fixing a limitation of 80 cents per $100 of assessed valuation on real estate for county purposes.

Also it voted in favor of both liquor measures on the ballot, gave substantial majorities for the elected Superior court judges, and the new supervisor of this district.

Governor Merriam's majority of 539 votes here was not surprising in view of the G. O. P. registration and the division in the Democratic ranks. He polled 390 votes in the August primary and 1106 on Tuesday. Upton Sinclair at the primary received the support of 356 Sierra Madreans and on Tuesday 567 voted for him. The total of 1860 votes cast established a new high mark, the highest previous vote being cast when the Wright State prohibition law topped two years ago.

Congressman William E. Evans, up for re-election after eight years of service in Washington and who was defeated by more than 10,000 votes by John McGroarty, Democrat who endorsed the Epic program, lost the city by 28 votes.

WEDDING CEREMONY OF 59 YEARS AGO REPEATED AS PAIR CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

SURROUNDED by their family, Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Andrews, of 692 West Central avenue, celebrated their 59th wedding anniversary on Sunday. The family dinner party was preceded by a wedding procession reminiscent of the one that occurred over half a century ago.

J. N. Hawks, business partner of Mr. Andrews for the past 20 years, ushered the guests to their places. Raymond D. Andrews, of San Gabriel, served his father as bestman, while Mrs. R. D. Andrews, served as matron of honor. The bride was escorted by her twin grandchildren, Raymond, Jr., and Patricia Andrews, in the procession. Regina Andrews, another grandchild, served as flower girl.

Guest of honor at the anniversary were Mrs. Grace Andrews Henry and Mrs. Elizabeth Andrews Peard, who are visiting from Hartford, Conn. They are favorite nieces of Mr. Andrews and came to the coast to attend the affair.

A huge wedding cake, beautifully decorated with pink and white sugar sweet peas, adorned the affair.

Mayor Asks Help In Forget-Me-Not Sale Of War Veterans

In lending Sierra Madre's support to the Forget-Me-Not drive being conducted tomorrow as a part of a National effort by the Foothill chapter of the Disabled American Veterans of the World War, Mayor H. Clay Reavis yesterday issued a proclamation asking public support.

The center of the dinner table and pink camellias graced each plate. Many felicitations were received with flowers, telegrams, letters and gifts from friends of the bride and groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrews, pioneer residents of Sierra Madre, came to this city in October 1882, moving into their present home at Central and Sierra Madre avenues. They were married in

PROTESTS HIGH BUS FARES FOR CHILDREN

To the Editor of the Sierra Madre News:

What is the reason that we have no way of getting our school children to Pasadena without it costing us $3.85 for one month's tickets. Arcadia drives the students there for $1.00 a month. It means an awful sacrifice to the average working man with one or more children going to school.

Can't the Chamber of Commerce do something about having a bus take the children over at $1.00 a month? In one case I refer to, the father has two days work a week. Think of the hardship on that man and many others who keep their children in school. Won't some one find a solution to this problem and won't some other parents with

Legion Promises Best Party Ever

WELL, well, well! Girls and boys, old people, young people, brides and grooms, this is the 16th anniversary of the late unpleasantness which was overcome by the Military and Naval establishment of the United States of America.

And Oh! what a good time you are going to have at the Armistice Dance, at the Woman's clubhouse, starting at 7:30 o'clock Saturday night, November 10th, 1934. You are going to have a chance at a real door prize offered by Henry Olsen, and folks, this is by no means a thing of least value.

The clubhouse will be beautifully decorated by George Rikeman of "Rikemans' Gift Shop." Tickets are on sale for the finest of all Armistice Day dances held in the City of Sierra Madre. They can be obtained at Olsen's Shoe Store, Roy Pickett's Service Station, Scotty's Good Food Grill, Thorne Mathis' oil station, Ellery's Hardware, Store, Cy Young's market, the Green Frog market, the Sierra newstand, City Hall, Sierra Madre Taxi, and Norris' store. Other tickets are available from Legionnaires.

You'll find the finest entertainment that has been staged in Sierra Madre since the war. You'll find the old Legionnaires a little bit gray, a little bit more staid perhaps, but not in the least less jolly than they were 16 years ago. You will hear "Mademoiselle from Armentiers"—you will hear "Home Boys Home, That's the Place for Me"—you will hear "Over There"—and you will find all the modern dances from the finest orchestra that has been in the city for a good many moons. Do not miss this opportunity and do not fail now to get your tickets.

—J. Mitchell.

The girls glee club will furnish music and a social hour will follow the meeting. Tea will be served by the 10th grade room mothers.

Members of the board are asked to be present at 1:30 for the business meeting which precedes the program.

Santa Claus' Shop Sends Out Another SOS For Used Toys

"Toy Shop," Fire Chief W. D. Richards says, "has become synonymous in Sierra Madre with Santa Claus' workshop. But there seems to be the danger that everybody will take the Shop for granted this year, on the assumption that the Firemen can do all the work without the public's support.

"But remember—we cannot put over the job alone. All we are able to do is repair the toys that are brought in to us, and distribute them to the children on Christmas eve. Everyone with disused or broken dolls, wagons, games, skates, cycles, and other toys is asked to bring them to us at once, so that we won't be so rushed at the last minute."

REALTY MAN LEASES THE OLD TRAIL STORE

Fred Knudsen, former chef of the Virginia Hotel, Long Beach, has been engaged to serve meals to Mr. Carlton's clients, Canyon Park residents and visitors.

QUESTIONS OF TREMENDOUS IMPORT TO THE PEOPLE WILL COME BEFORE LEGISLATURE

Higher Gas And Sales Taxes; Use Of Gas Fund By State, Cities Agitated

By Ralph H. Taylor
(Executive Secretary, Agricultural Council of California)

CALIFORNIA'S State gasoline tax, which has been the storm center of bitter and protracted battles in by-gone sessions of the Legislature, promises to stir up another battle-royal at Sacramento during the 1935 meeting of the lawmakers.

At least three proposals for changes in the tax and in the system of allocating its revenues are certain to make their appearance in the Legislature, according to present indications. And each of the suggested changes will generate days of heated controversy, if the legislators run true to form. Here are the three amendments which are under consideration by various groups for submission to the Legislature:

1—Diversion of part of the gasoline tax revenues from highway purposes to the general fund to help meet the State deficit.

2—Increase of the present 3-cent tax to 4-cents, with the additional income being allocated to general revenue purposes. There have also been some suggestions that the tax might be increased to 5 cents.

3—Allocation to California cities of one-half cent of the present 3-cent levy to build and maintain city streets without special assessments.

The proposal to divert gas tax revenues to the general fund is not new. It was submitted to the voters less than two years ago, with a stipulation that he money was to be used to pay for the interest and redemption of highway bonds, but was decisively rejected.

Since that time, however, the State deficit has doubled and trebled, with every indication that the forthcoming Legislature will be forced to find more than $100,000,000 in new revenues. And the pressure for diversion of gasoline tax revenues to cover some part of the present general fund shortage has greatly intensified.

The terrific deficit confronting the State is also responsible for the proposal to increase the gasoline levy to 4 cents, or more, with the additional revenues going to support of general government. And with determined opposition to any increase in property taxes, plus violent opposition to any plan to increase the sales tax, the suggestion that the gas tax be used as a general revenue measure will undoubtedly have strong support in some quarters.

The proposed amendment to allocate one-half cent of the gas tax to the cities is sponsored by the League of California Municipalities and is likely to have the support of such powerful groups as the two state auto clubs (leading opponents of the diversion proposal); the State Chamber of Commerce and possibly the State Department of Public Works.

At the present time, under an amendment enacted during the 1933 session of the Legislature, the cities are allocated one-fourth of a cent of the tax for city street work. In addition to asking that the one-fourth cent be increased to one-half cent, the League of Municipalities will make a drive to have the State finance all expenses of State highways within cities—approximately 1000 miles, in total!

The financial crisis at the 1935 session of the Legislature will be the greatest in the history of California State government. And when the smoke of battle clears from the general election, every California citizen, if he values his pocketbook and the welfare of his State, must give serious attention to the financial dilemma confronting government.

To further constructive action, every group sponsoring tax amendments should submit its proposals to public scrutiny before the Legislature convenes. And California taxpayers should take time off from their personal affairs to make their partnership with government a reality, rather than a theory.

Ideals Of Youth To Be Told At Meeting Of Young People

An Armistice Day peace meeting sponsored by Sierra Madre young people is gaining much support from local groups. It is scheduled for 7:45 Sunday night, November 11th at the Congregational Church. While young people are giving the entire program, every member of the community, irrespective of age or affiliation is invited to come and hear the ideals of youth for service to America.

Arthur Casaday, from Berkeley, will be the main speaker. He is speaking at a similar program in Los Angeles in the afternoon and is a very popular young speaker. Larry Sellers, Wilder Immel and Elizabeth Morgridge are also to give short talks.

FAMED MUSEUM WILL MOVE TO ARCADIA

W. Parker Lyon's famed Pony Express Museum, for so many years a historic landmark in San Marino, is to be moved soon to a six-acre tract on the Baldwin estate on Huntington Drive in Arcadia, near the new race track.

A stable is to be built to house the stage coaches, as well as a fire engine house and bell tower similar to those used in old fashioned western country towns. An entire Chinese street, including a Joss house, Chinese laundry and the like will also be erected on the premises.

LOCAL ARTIST'S EXHIBIT IN LOS ANGELES MUSEUM ATTRACTING WIDESPREAD ATTENTION

VENRON J. MORSE's one-man exhibit of block prints now hanging in the Los Angeles Museum has been given widespread critical acclaim, and reproductions of a number of the prints have appeared in newspapers in San Diego, San Francisco, Los Angeles and other metropolitan centers. The above print, "Midday in Apablasa Street," is a study of the Mexican quarter of Los Angeles which has been praised throughout the country.

"Returns" From The East Bring Glad Tidings To Local Townsend Club

THE Dr. Townsend Old Age Pension Club rewarded its faithful followers Monday night with a delightful musical program which followed the salute to the flag. After singing several of the good old numbers, Dean Arnold Bode very graciously played a spirited march in D minor as only Dean Bode can play.

Mrs. May Barlow, who needs no introduction, then sang two lovely songs with much feeling, Dean Bode accompanying. And with the spirits of the audience made much lighter through the medium of music, intense interest was immediately focused upon the reading of the weekly bulletin from Long Beach.

As "returns" are the order of the day, perhaps, it would not be untimely to mention the results of the recent nation-wide mass meeting.

Waco, Texas, reported a meeting with two thousand attending; and approximately ten thousand Lone Stars affixing their signatures to the petition.

San Diego, Los Angeles, Long Beach, and Oakland, California, all wrote of enthusiastic meetings with four great gatherings in the latter city.

Which brings us within the Golden Gate to learn of the personal appearance of Dr. F. E. Townsend in San Francisco.

It was the first meeting the doctor has conducted in the northern metropolis, and he warmly writes of being highly gratified at the close attention of the several thousand people present, also of the presence of the distinguished writer, Kathleen Norris on the platform with him. Mrs. Norris supplemented the doctor's speech with her address upon the plan.

Word comes that Robert E. Clements, National Secretary and co-founder of the Old Age Revolving Pension Plan is on his way to Minneapolis to speak over a nation-wide hookup.

"What is one man's loss is another's gain" is true enough of Dr. Frank Dyer of Los Angeles, and Mr. Hawks (father of the aviator) whose brilliant oratory and attractive personalities have won them a staunch place in the hearts of all easterners. Which fact accounts for the extended stay of these gentlemen in Michigan and Illinois.

This news makes everyone extremely happy, for there must be complete understanding in order to have success, it was pointed out at Monday's meeting.

Another propitious note came from Kansas City, Missouri, to the effect that their financial magazine, "The Economist," is carrying a splendid article, in a late issue, on the Townsend Plan.

The founders feel justified in making the sanguine prediction that their work will be brought to an early and successful conclusion.

Our doctor leaves the 11th of this month for Washington, D.C. So ends the 8th bulletin!

—Mildred Curtis Bolms

DUVCW Installs Its New Officers

AN unusually large attendance was present for the election and installation of new officers at the last meeting of the D. U. V. C. W. Lee High stepped from the office of Junior Vice President to that of President. Minerva Rigney was unanimously elected to fill the Junior Vice Presidency, and Alyce Anderson was appointed to the office of secretary.

Department President Miss Margaret French installed the officers and her mother Mrs. Ella French, department secretary witnessed the installation. All other officers remained the same.

Our next meeting November 9th will be of intense and vital interest to all tent sisters. Let nothing hinder your attendance.

CLUB CONTACTS PEP UP BUSINESS MEN

Ed DeGroot, of Sierra Madre, past district governor of Rotary International, told the weekly meeting of the Pasadena Rotary Club last week that "good humor and wisecracks help pep up the morale of business and professional men, and enables them to relax from the intensity of business affairs."

Reviewing the aims and objects of service clubs he said that the community service, vocational service and charities—carried on are all very important; but he still regards as very important the benefits of morale and sociability they confer on their members.

Foreshadowing something in the way of weather, a new cycle of sun spots has been discovered by scientists at work in the sun observatory atop Mt. Wilson.

The cause of the spots is ascribed to gas rushing to the flaming planet's surface, and it is said that they have a definite effect on the earth's magnetic field and the weather.

"GOING HOME TO A WARM HOUSE? AN EVENING'S WARMTH COSTS LESS THAN THE MAGAZINE IN YOUR POCKET"

Which would you rather pay 10c for—a magazine to read in a cold house, or warm rooms in which to spend the evening comfortably doing anything?

That's a true illustration of the small cost of natural gas for house heating in Southern California. It is based on accurate statistics showing that the average expenditure for heating, by nearly a million users of gas, is between seven and eight cents a day—during the coolest six months of the year.

Indoor comfort in winter is so insignificant an item of household expense that you needn't be concerned about the cost of making your house heating arrangements perfect. Perhaps another small gas heater will do it—ask your dealer or gas company to inspect your heating equipment now.

GARDEN NOTES FOR NOVEMBER

By Jessie Ward Russell

CONDITIONS could not be better than they are this month for working in the garden. The ground is moist due to our recent rains. Almost all kinds of ornamental trees and shrubs can be planted now. Also vines and bedding plants. Include some of the ornamental berry shrubs in your planting. Nothing is more attractive for winter color in the garden than the Pyracanthas and Cotoneasters which are our most popular ornamental berry shrubs.

Sweet Peas can still be planted. Those planted now will bloom in the early spring.

Bedding plants that should be planted now are Pansies, Snapdragons, Stocks, Violas, Petunias and Calendulas.

Do not plant regular snapdragons plants, use the new rust-proof sorts. They will save you a lot of grief. Petunias will bloom right through the winter if the weather is mild. In any case plants put out now will bloom earlier in the spring than those that are planted then.

It will soon be time to cut back your Dahlias. The bulbs can be taken up or can be left in the ground until March.

Lawns should have attention now if they have not already been renovated. Rake out as much as you can of the old Burmuda grass. Cut as short as you can with mower and sow blue grass and clover seed and cover with weedless steer manure.

A. L. A. Activities

By Helen Lovejoy

NOVEMBER 11th—Armistice Day—the day when, with marching men, rolling drums, flying flags, and volleying salute, we rebrighten our memories of that glorious day in 1918 when victory and peace burst like a joyous sunrise through the black nightmare of the World War.

To the women of the A.L.A. and the men of the American Legion, Armistice Day has deep personal meaning. We will never forget that day in '18, and the service and sacrifice that made it possible.

In our annual observance of Armistice Day we try to express our continued devotion to our country and the ideals that have guided its destiny. We endeavor to inspire in our community the same willingness to work for America and American ideals that gripped the nation in '17 and '18 and made possible its war achievements.

As never before in time of peace such inspiration is needed this year. America now needs to be and must be united in a spirit of patriotism.

November 5 to 11th was set aside for American Education Week sponsored by the Legion, National Education Association and the U.S. Office of Education.

Blanche Buie, Bertha Irvine, and your publicity chairman attended County Council on Friday. Mrs. Sarah Nash, of San Marino, department chaplain, was a guest of Mrs. Buie.

Will you make an effort to send in your dues as soon as possible? Bertha Irvine is certainly making a survey of all eligibles, working every possible moment. About our "silent partners," those members who faithfully keep up their dues each year, yet never attend, we take this means to express our appreciation.

Is anyone trying for the membership prize? Girls do you know we only have five to send in on this aerial pickup Saturday the 10th? What has happened to our budget cans? It will require more effort than we have put forth to date, to ever make our quota. Bear in mind we won't rate a citation unless we show some speed.

We have had no response to our call for wheel-chair robes. Louise is doing her usual calling on the sick, as is her custom.

Leila Embree and Lucile Pickett have been busy purchasing prizes for the card players, Saturday night. You will see the veteran made articles on display in one of the downtown windows.

Remember district meeting in San Gabriel Monday, the 19th, and of course we will all be together.

BEACH BUS LINE TO COME INTO ARCADIA

Continuation of the Ocean Park-Pasadena motor bus line through to the Arcadia race-track will be established by the Motor Transit company, if a permit is granted by the State Railroad Commission. The application asks permission for an interchange of equipment and passengers at Pasadena in connection with the through service.

ST. RITA'S ALTAR SOCIETY TO HOLD LUNCHEON MEET

Because of the election, the regular meeting of St. Rita's Altar Society, scheduled for last Tuesday, has been postponed until the next Tuesday, November 13. A luncheon will be served at noon, with Mrs. William Colliger, Mrs. Frank Spencer and Mrs. Gene Holliger in charge. A very interesting program has been arranged.

Land Of Enchantment Revealed By Youthful Players In Musical Fantasy

One step from the everyday world into that of the make-believe was all that was needed Friday evening to carry one into a land of enchantment, artistry, and rare charm on the occasion of the "Musical Fantasy" presented by the Creative Studios of Mme. Marion de Beaulieu for the Woman's Club at the clubhouse.

The consummate skill of Mme. de Beaulieu was reflected in the dancers who pirouetted so gracefully in their various numbers before the presentation of the fantasy. But the loveliness of the entire cast, and the marked ability of each pupil were too overwhelming for one poor pen to attempt to describe.

Appreciation of the beautiful, and memory, however, keep whispering not to forget that first group of tiny cameos: Gloria Ann Brown, Joy Lombard and Rose Marie Peak who each gave truly fairy-like numbers.

Thoughts of a swan or a bird of shell-pink plumage came to mind as Marilyn Pian floated across the stage on her perfect little toes, so airy and perfectly timed were her movements. This child should go far in the field of art.

And whom have we here? A miniature by Watteau, or a real, live little girl? Yes, the latter to be sure; and Lois Heaslip at that, executing an artistic interpretation on, very, very charmingly in her delicate pink tulle lace with blue and her picture hat of old blue.

Another exquisite number in the interpretative class was that given by Jean Spoelstra in a costume of billowy jade. And then came a cavalier all clad in plum and gray velvet across the stage leading his petite dark-eyed lady.

The name of their intricate dance, I think, was Vous dansez Marquise—and the dancers? Why, Mary Pulling and her adorable baby sister, Eileen!

For those who enjoy tap-dancing, there were some extremely clever numbers, excelled, of course, by the gifted instructor, Miss Wanda, whose offerings were gay and excellently done. Oh, but those cunning little readings apropos of childhood! Let's see, they were given by versatile Lorraine Melvin, Lois Heaslip, and inimitable Esta Lucoff.

Mrs. A. E. Pulling should be justly proud of her talented daughter, Kathleen, for not only did she show a fine flair of comedy in the fantasy but her piano solo, "To A Waterfall," illustrated the same care and technique. The same can be said of Frances Robertson, Margery Bradley, and baby Eileen Pulling who gave delightful selections.

The witching hour has struck, and "The play's the thing," so let's get away before the ink dries on the pen to the land of "Peeps," the sunshine fairy; but, alas! again, it is hard to know how or where to begin.

Fairies simply cannot be described in ordinary language, you know, and I don't think there were ever any fairies more dazzling than those created out of Mme. de Beaulieu's laboratory, from whence come so many superlative things. The gown of silver lace and filmy chiffon worn by the Queen, Jean Spoelstra, the silver garb of the "Prince," Frances Robertson, the illusive, coveyby affairs worn by "Peeps," Lois Heaslip, "Morning Star," Lorraine Melvin, for instance, were all inspired and fashioned by the same fairy godmother.

Not to mention that wriggly, undulating, most realistic yellow and green worm into which Kathleen McCoy crawled and did a splendid piece of acting during the garden scene. Anna Sue Adwell, as Dawn, added a soft note of grace to this scene in her cloudy draperies of misty blue. But the piece de resistance of the evening was, undoubtedly, the garland of skipping, cavorting rosebuds who naively gambled here, there, and anon in their diaphanous skirts of pastel fluffiness.

Through this maze, bravely strode one lone boy, the "stage" brother of the brilliant Marilyn—Carl Snyder by name—who stoutly maintained his utter disbelief in fairies until the bitter end, at least, until the test; and then—all's well that ends well, which means that "they must have lived happily ever after" to be true to form.

And thus the evening of splendid achievement came to a close with the Queen and her retinue departing in their sedan-chairs of roses—and coaches of—pumpkins, mayhops, to the strains of a very lovely song given by Mrs. Myrtle Hill's Mothers' P.T.A. Chorus.

Mme. de Beaulieu will present her cast in the Civic Auditorium in the Crown City in the near future.

Fire Flames

By One of the Boys

IN preparation for a forthcoming First Aid contest, Joe Swanson and his crew are practicing several nights a week at the quarters. The members of the first aid crew are Captain Joe Swanson, W. L. Hibbs, Vernon Udell, Bob Babbit and John Noble. When it is possible to get one of the other firemen to act as the "under dog" for them to practice on, these fellows make good use of him. Just recently Harlan Gerlach was convinced that several hours of artificial respiration would be beneficial and when they finally let up on him he didn't know whether he had been chiropracticed or fumigated. At times they had him so bandaged that he looked as tho' he tried to separate two or three mountain lions.

The town has gone for a marble game fad and Bob Babbit of the fire department is no exception. Crowds gather around the marble shooters to watch Bob put them in the proper holes.

Tomorrow night is the big Legion dance which is the start of the season's big parties in which the community participates. Not long after will be the Firemen's big dance and card party for which the tickets are to be printed at an early date. The firemen will call at your door in pairs so in case one of them is not the proper salesman, the other may sell the required ticket.

People are urged again to bring in toys now for the Toy Shop or notify any of the firemen, who will call for them.

A much and long needed clutch is being put in the Pierce Arrow truck. This will make the driving much safer and easier in the future. With a good clutch, this truck is much faster on the hills than any of the others, which helps greatly in our efficiency.

EXPERT DEMONSTRATES ARRANGEMENT OF FLOWERS

The Esther Forman Garden Club had as its guest speaker at its meeting on Friday Mrs. Charles Nomura, who demonstrated flower and vase arrangements. Mrs. Nomura studied this subject for four years in Japan. The employment of green bouquet and flowers was cleverly shown.

Caliente Jockey Club Breaks Faith; Racing War Opens

War between California's new race track at Arcadia and the Agua Caliente track loomed this week as the Mexican racing organization announced its track would open December 30, only five days after the formal opening of the 53-day meet here.

Declaring he would not co-operate with Caliente promoters, Dr. Charles H. Strub, Santa Anita head, stated: "We have only 1600 stables, and applications for 3000, so I do not believe racing in Caliente will have much influence on us. However, I do not think Agua Caliente is exactly playing fair... If any of our Santa Anita horses vacate for weekends, they will forfeit their stables."

When plans were made to open the local track in December there is said to have been an understanding or gentlemen's agreement that the Caliente course would not open this winter.

Bazaar At St. Rita's Sets New High Mark

With a total of 645 persons at St. Rita's Bazaar last Friday and Saturday, the affair has been entered as one of the most successful of annual events. Turkey dinners were served to 375 guests on Saturday evening. To W. Bradley, president of the committee in charge of arrangements and Mrs. Woodson F. Jones, vice-president, and their committees are given the credit for success of the bazaar.

Mrs. L. E. Rourke, of Alta Vista boulevard, Hollywood, was winner of the elaborately filled cedar chest; Jack Colligan, of East Grand View avenue, and Robert Babbit, of West Central avenue, were presented with tickets for the Notre-Dame-U. S. C. football game; Mrs. William McDonald, of 435 East Grand View avenue, went home with a new automobile tire; Mrs. A. Delvecci, captured the door prize for Friday evening, a present of five gallons of oil, and Mr. Rudolph was five dollars richer after winning the Saturday night door prize.

The artistic arrangements of the dining room and the efficient service rendered the guests was commendable. Guests Friday evening totaled 125, while on Saturday evening the auditorium was crowded with 520 visitors.

Hartford, Conn., November 3, 1875. Both Mr. and Mrs. Andrews were active in the up-building of Sierra Madre. Mr. Andrews was superintendent of the first Sunday School here, was clerk of the board of school trustees for 10 years or more, a member of the Library board, trustee of the First Congregational Church and was president of the water company for years.

BIG ARMISTICE DAY PROGRAM AT ASCOT

The Legion Ascot Speedway officials have arranged a big Armistice Day program to be run next Sunday afternoon. Armistice Day being the eleventh day of the eleventh month the racing committee will carry the "eleven" idea through the program.

The main event will be 111 laps and there will be 11 entries. Two 11-lap heats will be run to select the main event field and there will be an 11-lap consolation race.

Judging by Sunday's racing the fans are due to see some splendid sport during the winter months. More drivers are planning to come west and before the first of the year the greatest array of drivers in the history of Ascot will be on hand.

MAE WEST COMING TO THE LYRIC THEATRE

Tomorrow night and continuing until Tuesday, November 13, the Lyric Theatre presents Mae West in her latest laughfest, "Belle of the Nineties," with John Mack Brown, and Roger Prior. Despite the movies' cleanup campaign, and the objection of censors to the original title, "It Ain't No Sin," the play is acclaimed by critics as being Miss West's best to date. On the same bill is "Love Time," with Pat Patterson and Nils Asther. Starting Wednesday, November 14, "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" is screened. This film stars Pauline Lord, noted New York stage actress, and features W. C. Fields and Zasu Pitts. Also playing is Ann Harding and Paul Lucas in "The Fountain," said to be one of the year's most artistic screen dramas.

Electric Railway here.

Mrs. Andrews is a charter member of the Woman's Club, the Congregational Church and numerous other organizations.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrews enjoy fine health and Mr. Andrews may be seen almost every morning early working on his acreage. The original 20 acres, comprising the estate, has been sold, with only two acres remaining. Mr. Andrews after coming to California became a well-known orchardist, taking a gold medal for his oranges in Portland, Oregon, and a second prize for lemons in San Francisco.

The couple had four children, all boys, two of whom are still living. Burton W. Andrews, the older, resides in Los Angeles, while Raymond D. Andrews, makes his home in San Gabriel. Both were present at the celebration of their parents.

ALL ESPEE TRAINS TO BE AIR CONDITIONED

Detailed plans for air conditioning completely the passenger equipment of limited trains on Southern Pacific's four main trans-continental routes were received here yesterday by G. W. Wetherby, district passenger agent for Southern Pacific Co. The plans also call for air conditioning of a large part of the equipment on the company's principal trains on the Pacific Coast from Portland to Guadalajara, Mexico.

Work is to be started immediately on about 260 cars and will involve an expenditure of approximately $2,000,000 by the Southern Pacific and Pullman companies, it was stated.

The program gives consideration to passengers in tourist cars, chair cars and coaches. It is expected the new equipment will be ready for service May 1 for the start of next year's tourist season and there will be no extra fare charge for travel.

FRIENDSHIP CLUB TO ELECT OFFICERS

Annual election of officers will be held next Monday evening at a meeting of the Friendship Club in the Ladies' Parlors of Congregational Church. Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. William Adwell, Mrs. C. M. Baker, Mrs. R. R. Hartman and Mrs. Thomas Schwartz.

Sport Slants

By John Copeland

TUESDAY having somehow checked off on the calendar as usual, and this old State remaining the grandest place to park your staff and shoes even in spite of periodic political earaches—we may now turn with burble and a couple of hey-non-neys to the more interesting question of the Rose Bowl game.

Tomorrow will settle the coast representative once and for all, inasmuch as Santa Clara is automatically ruled out for a reason not fully comprehensible to these few and unwary grey cells. Stanford and Washington both having acknowledgedly fine material, there's no reason why the big tussle cannot stand to settle the puzzle of the System, which Zuppke pooped off of late.

Offhand we'd side in with Stanford to come in heads up; but why couldn't it be the old story of the shifty Rockne system pulling a fast one in the more cumbersome Warner system. Both Phelan and Thornhill, of course, have their own moderations of those systems, but basically it's the same tale—balanced rhythm and speed vs. deceptive power.

The Card's great backfield and ends probably will offset anything the Huskies may spring. Yet, it might well turn out to be one of the most inspired dog-fights in coast football history.

After that, the East and the South will give a looksee, and between them they should be able to furnish a bunch of boys who can take care of themselves. Navy . . . Minnesota . . . Tulane . . . Pitt . . . Alabama . . . even Poppus' Temple . . . That would be a darn, Temple vs. Stanford.

PROPHESY—California's grand man o' war, Arleigh Williams, to keep Troy at the point of his educated toe all afternoon and sneak over a 7-6 or a 3-0 win. Incidentally Williams seems headed for All-American.

STIRRUP CHATTER—Twenty Grand in training for the coming season at Santa Anita . . . The track said to be exceptionally fast . . . and the scenery all over anything in the country.

PLAGARIZED ANECDOTE—Having to do with the definition of a college football player . . . a well bred crumb with a lot of crust who goes to school for a four year loaf.

NOMINATION—For the swell ballroom hoover in town (and everybody else clapped so, too, the other night), Toots Brain.

A STEADY PULL

Newspaper advertising does not jerk—it pulls. It begins gently at first, but the pull is steady. It increases day by day, year by year, until it exerts an irresistible power.

Safeway Stores In Drive To Reduce Apple Crop Surplus

W. R. Penn of the local Safeway stores announces that the Safeway organization is conducting an extensive campaign to move as much as possible of the surplus apple crop of the four Western states.

Even though the drought affected the producing sections of many states, the apple crop did not apparently suffer. In fact, there is a surplus in the four Western states of something like four million bushels over the 1933 crop.

The color, size and flavor of the apple crop seems to be better this year than for many years past, and the Safeway Company, as is their custom in these "consumer-producer" campaigns, is doing all possible to help the growers in moving this surplus.

The week of November 5 to 10 was set aside as a week in which only apples are featured. The company announced that they have purchased several hundred cars for this sale in the four Western states.
